

Message

From: Newsday Update [newsletters@e.newsday.com]
Sent: 1/14/2022 10:01:34 AM
To: Balla, Richard [Balla.Richard@epa.gov]
Subject: Llers frustrated by constant changes to CDC guidelines

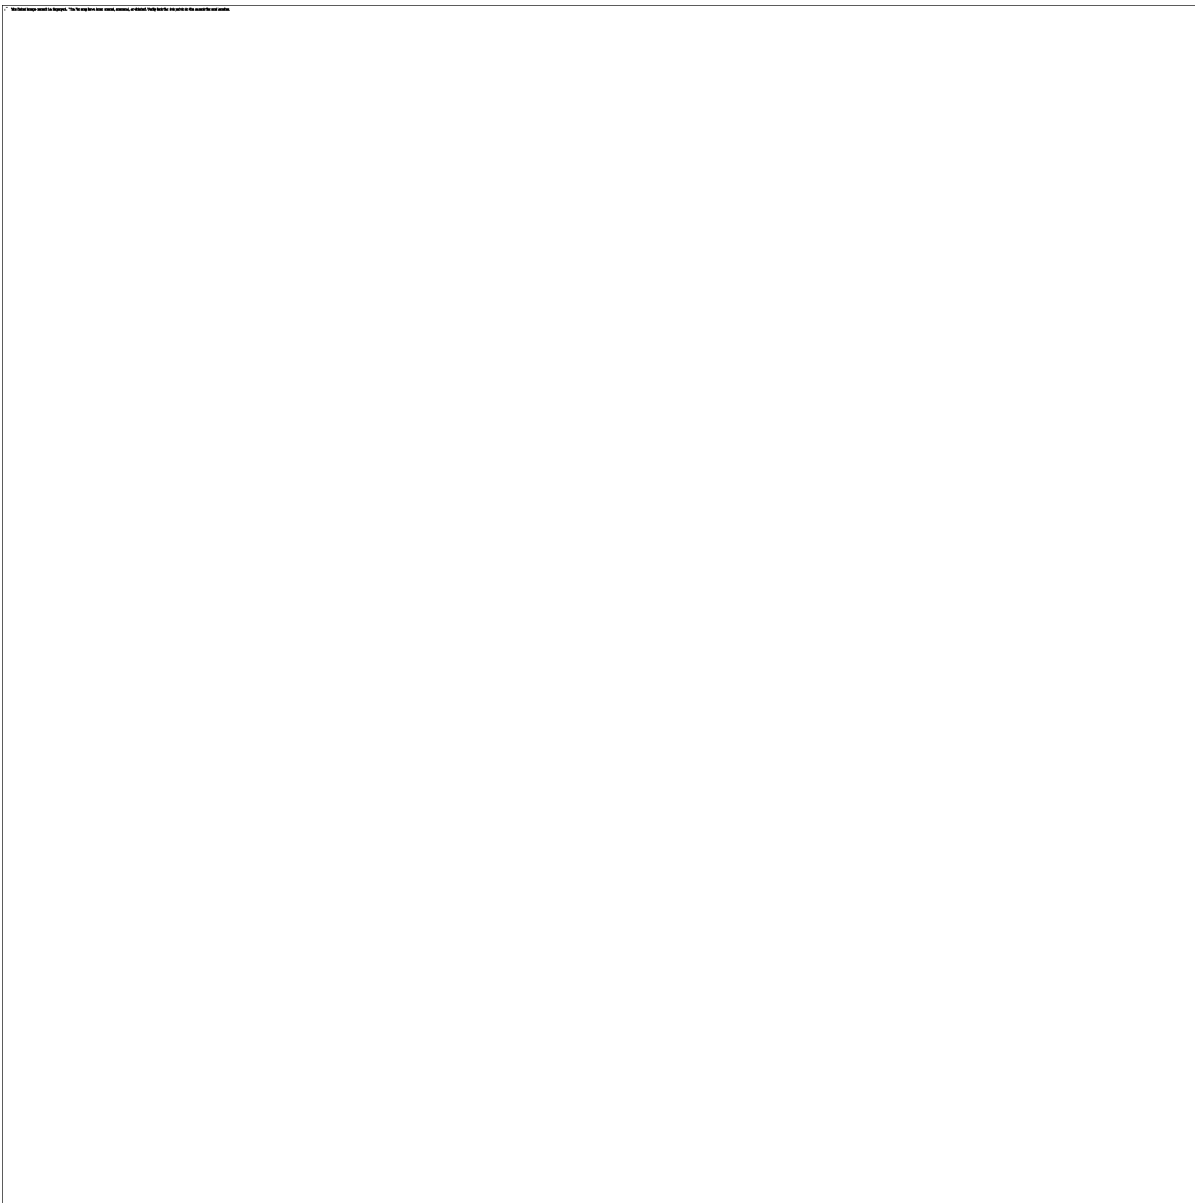

Newsday
MORNING UPDATE

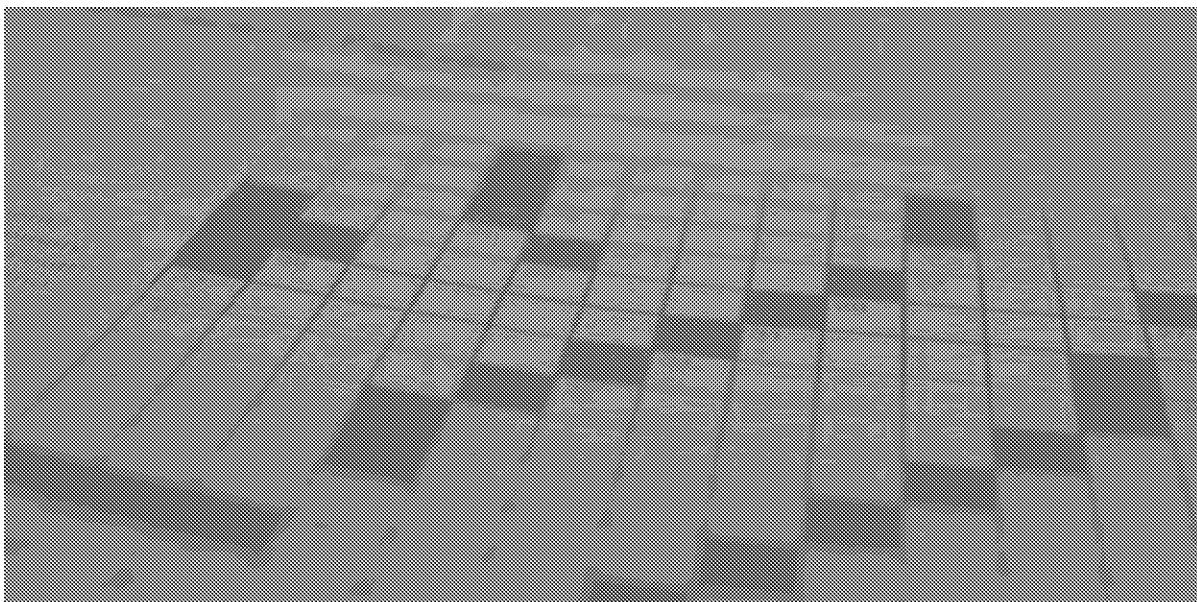

Llers frustrated by constant changes to CDC guidelines

Medical experts said the updates will continue as science scrambles to keep up with COVID-19, but worry that people will start ignoring important messages.

Huntington center, gaining Whole Foods, to lose 3 tenants

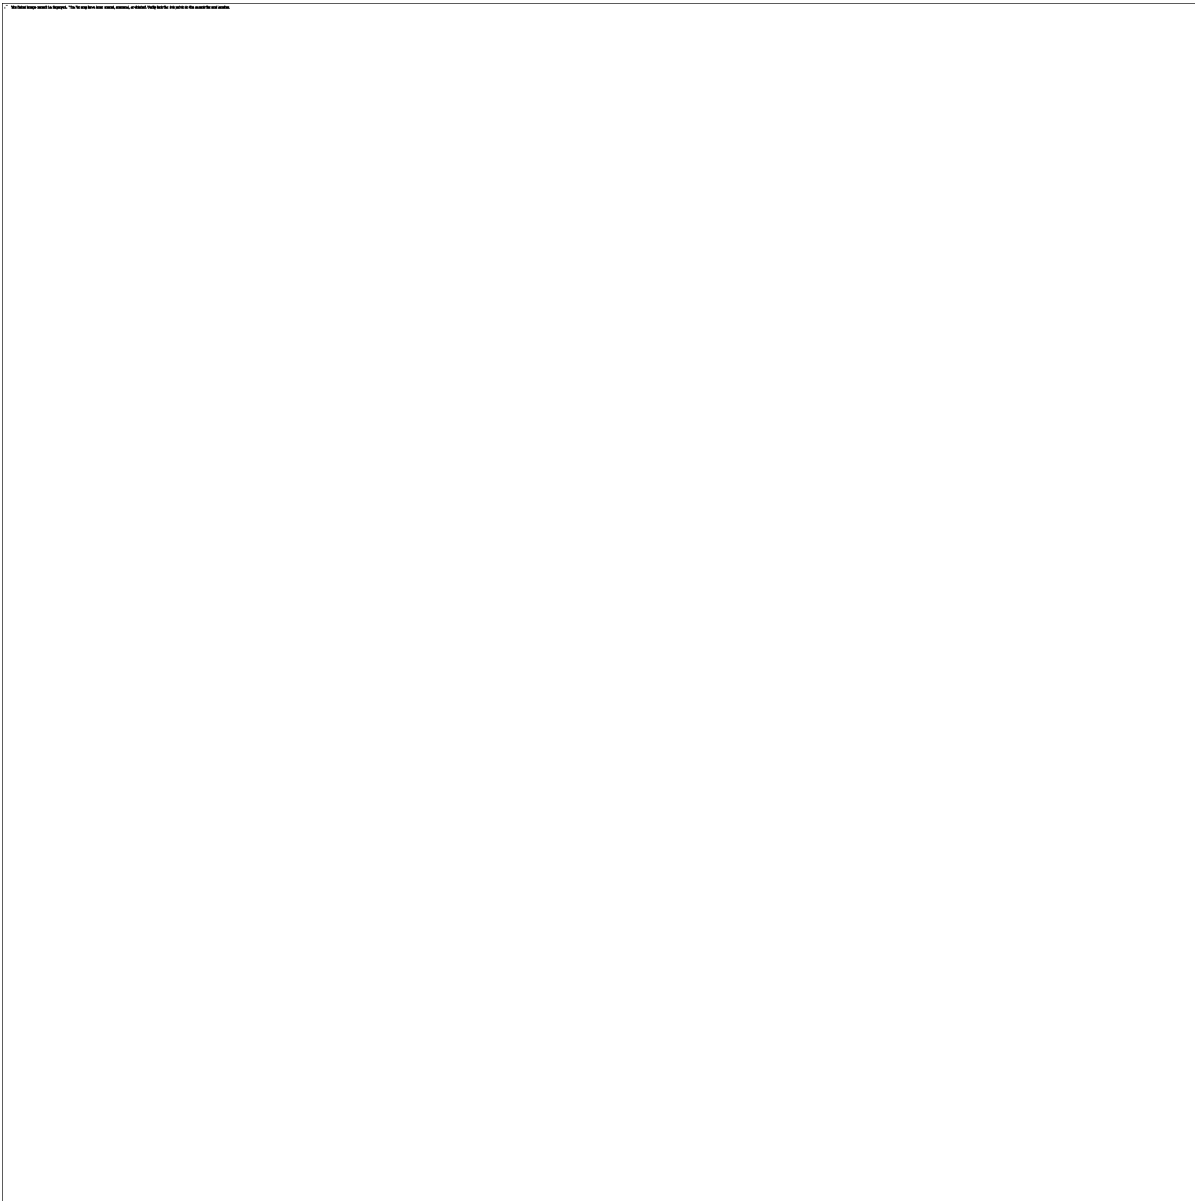

Buy Buy Baby, Five Guys and Applebee's will exit Huntington Shopping Center, while a Whole Foods Market is planned for the site on Route 110.

Play today's puzzle!

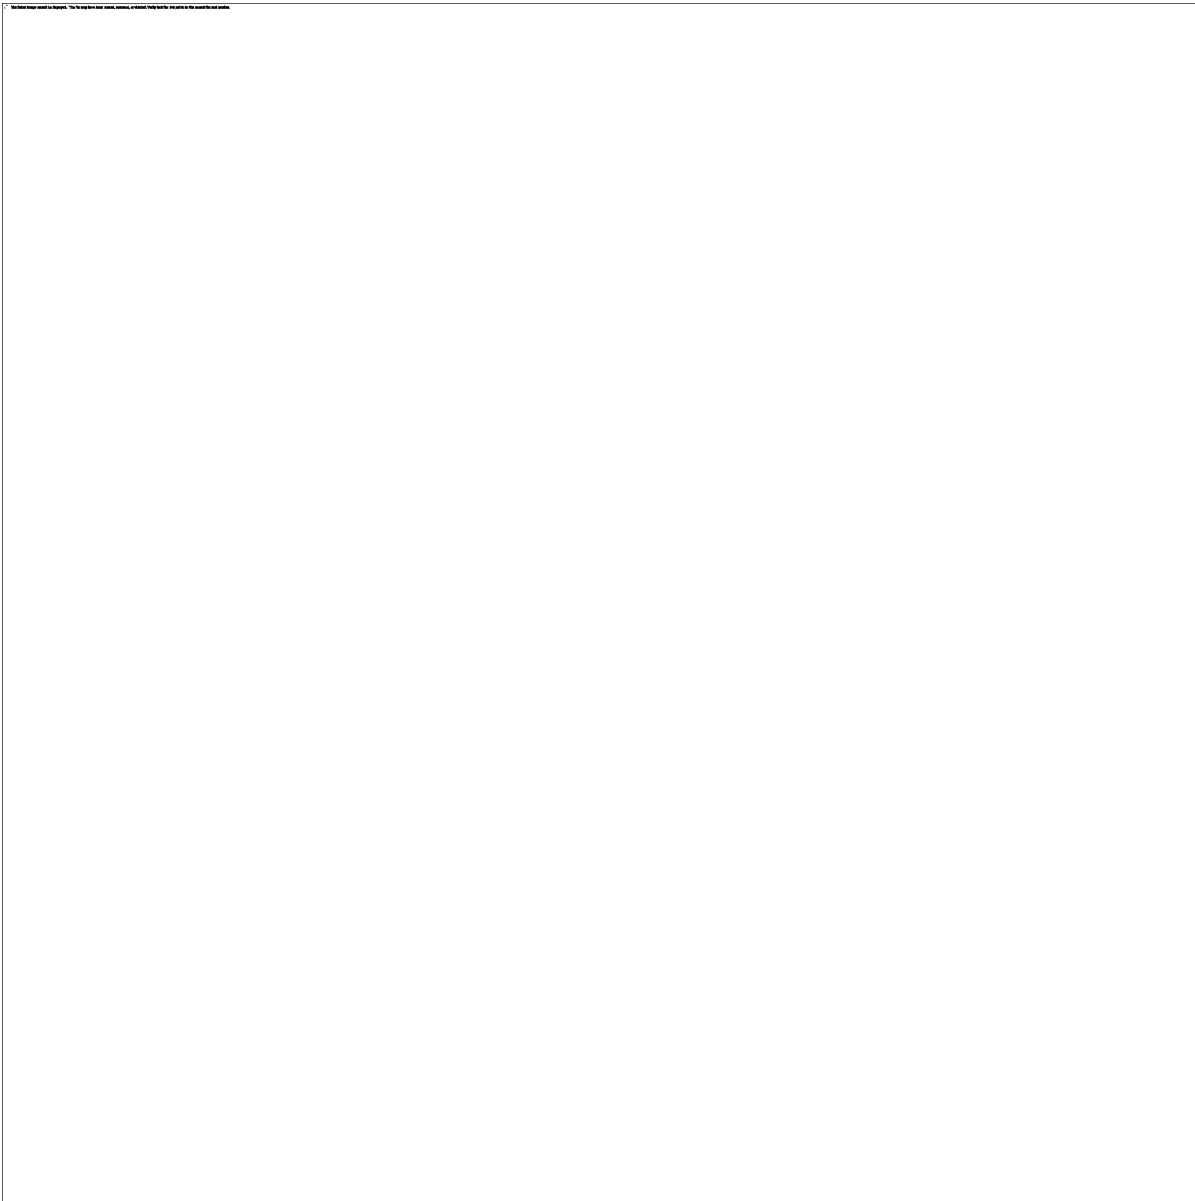

Test your knowledge and solve Newsday Crossword, edited by Stanley Newman.

Play Now

NYPD Commissioner Sewell puts her stamp on department, making staff appointments

Sewell, the former chief of detectives for Nassau County police, became NYPD commissioner on Jan. 1 and the staff changes were expected as she puts into place her plans for dealing with violence, gun trafficking and quality of life offenses.

All Islanders and their fans can do is think positive

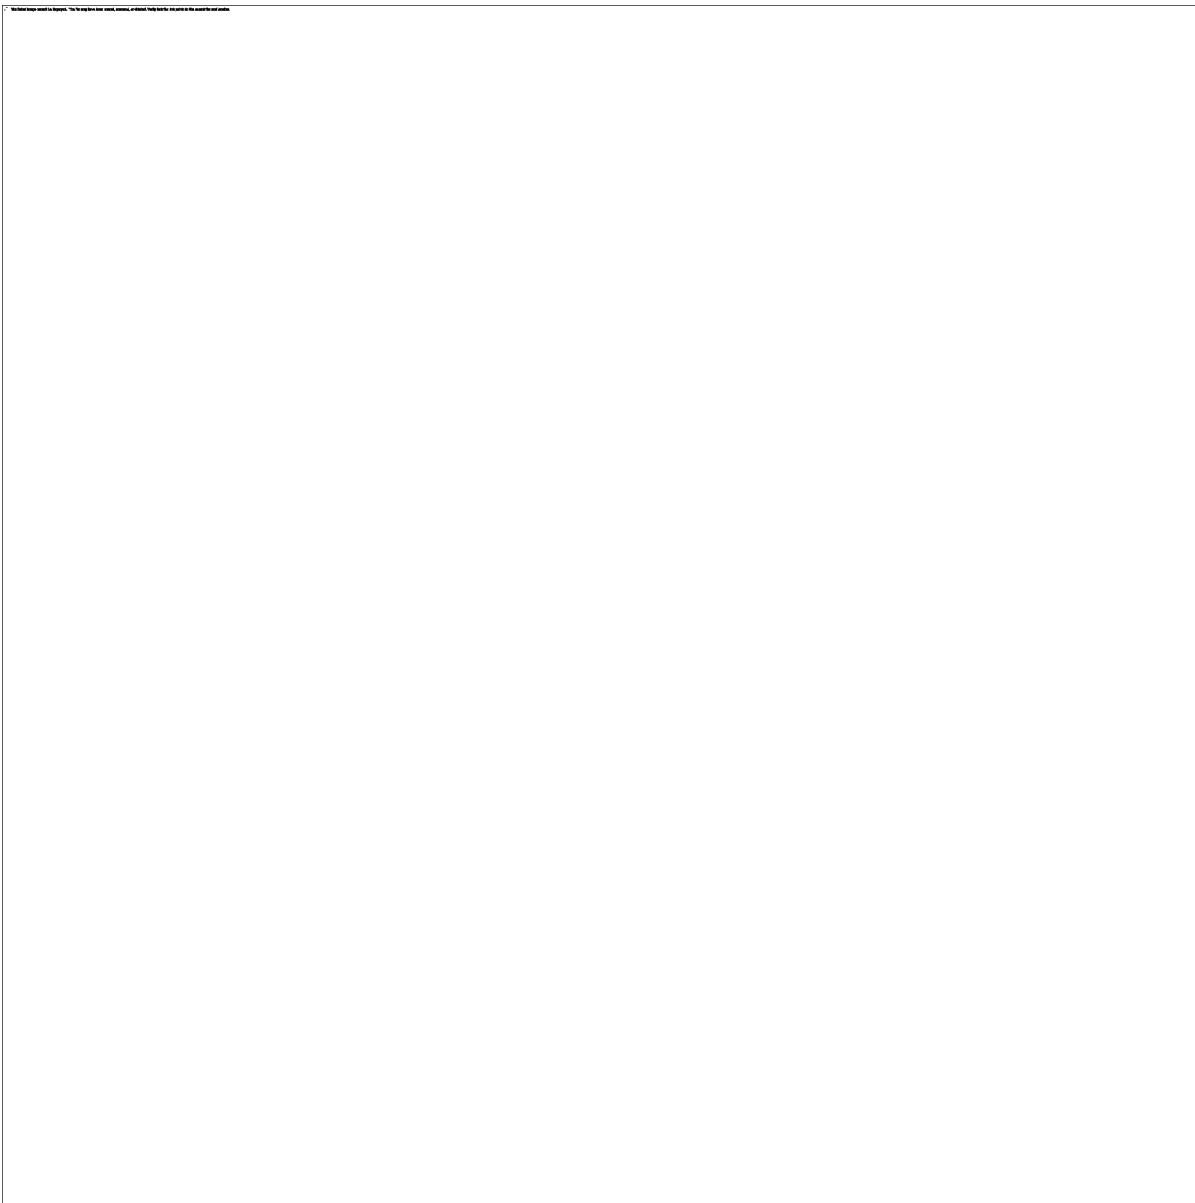

Islanders fan Stacie Moisa of Commack: "You could not make this up if you tried."

Advertisement

The Board is responsible for the following: The following are the main responsibilities of the Board, which are to be carried out by the Board.

The Board is responsible for the following: The following are the main responsibilities of the Board, which are to be carried out by the Board.

The Board is responsible for the following: The following are the main responsibilities of the Board, which are to be carried out by the Board.

Watch: Sayville's Jack Cheshire receives 2021 Hansen Award

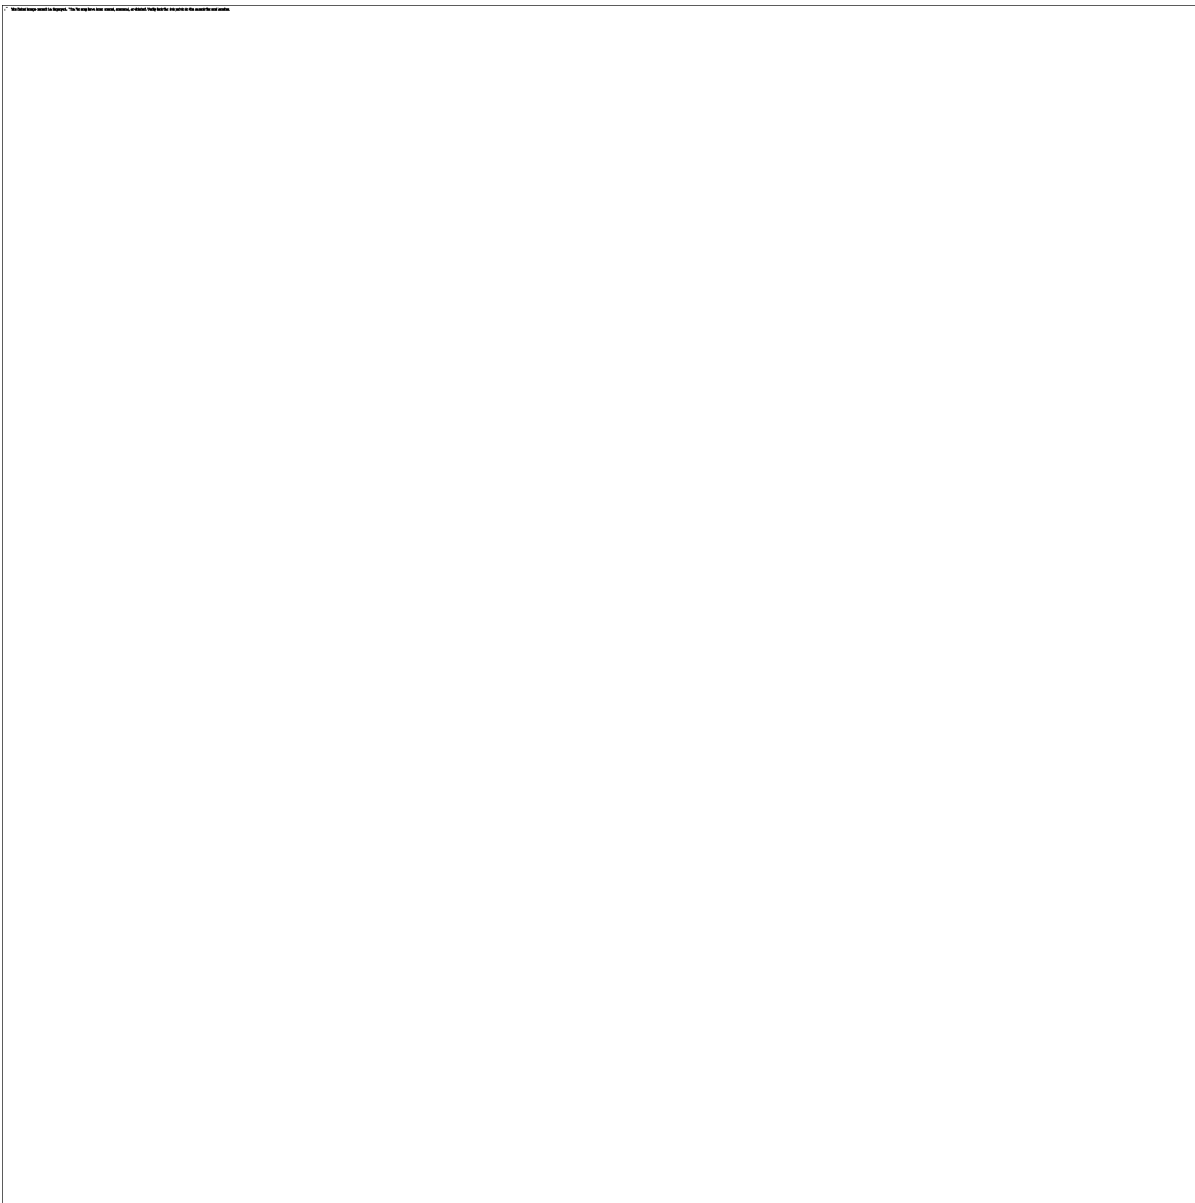

Sayville quarterback Jack Cheshire on Thursday received the Carl A. Hansen Award, given to Suffolk's most outstanding football player.

BREAKING NEWS

Get breaking Long Island news in your inbox as it happens

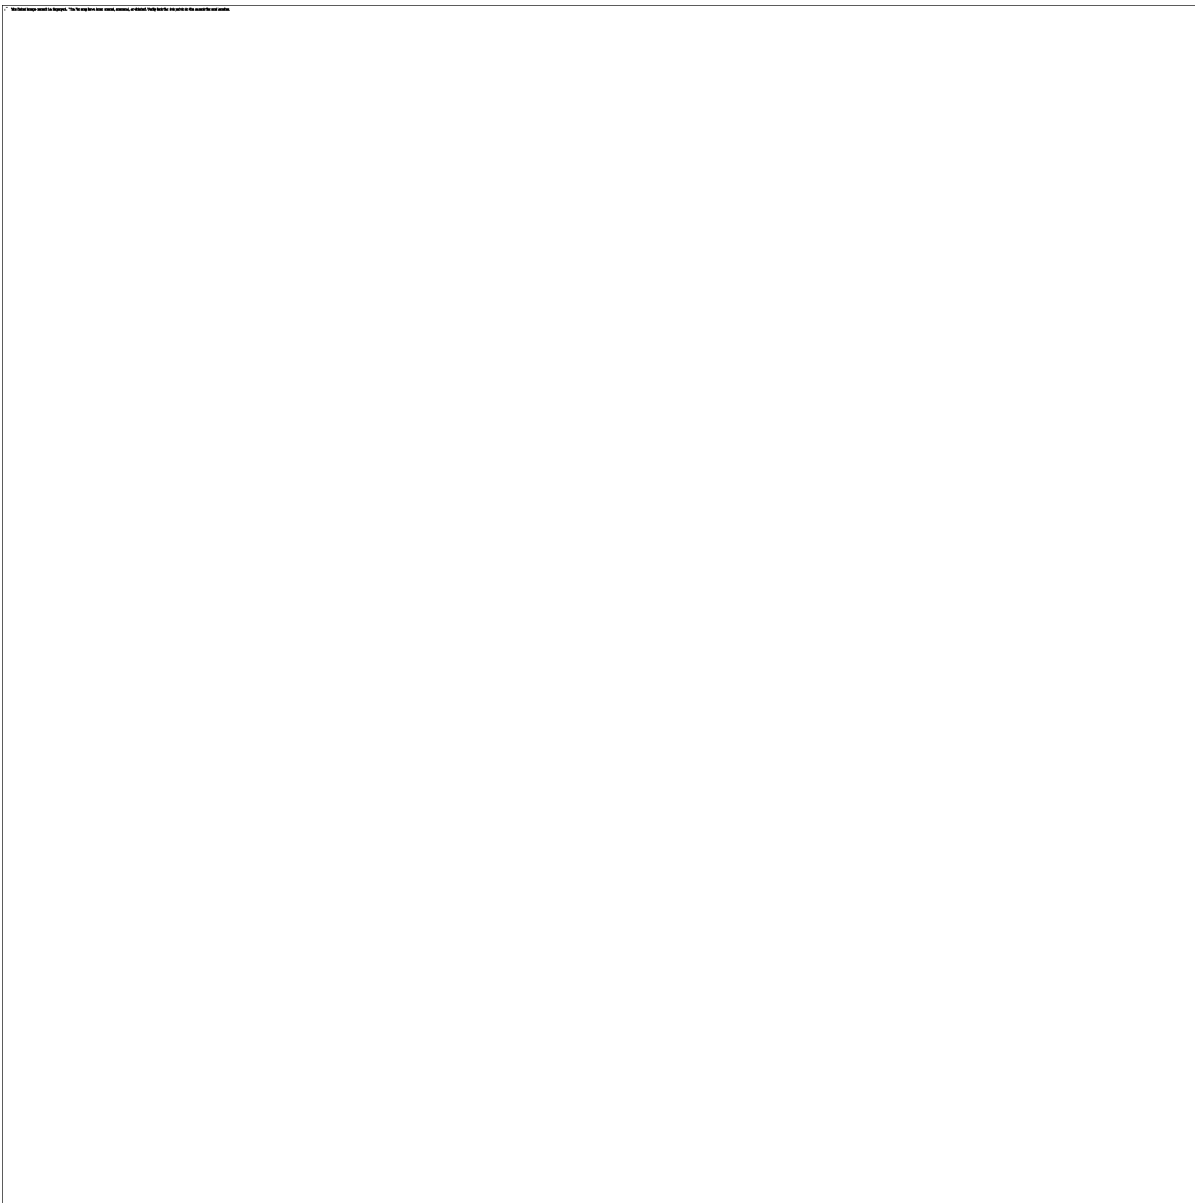

Never miss an important story again.

Sign Up Now

Long Islanders step up to help survivors of Bronx fire

The volunteers brought and helped distribute clothing, food, and toiletries to the dozens displaced by the Bronx apartment fire that left 17 dead. But they also brought emotional support so that the survivors wouldn't feel alone.

Communal funeral for Bronx fire victims planned

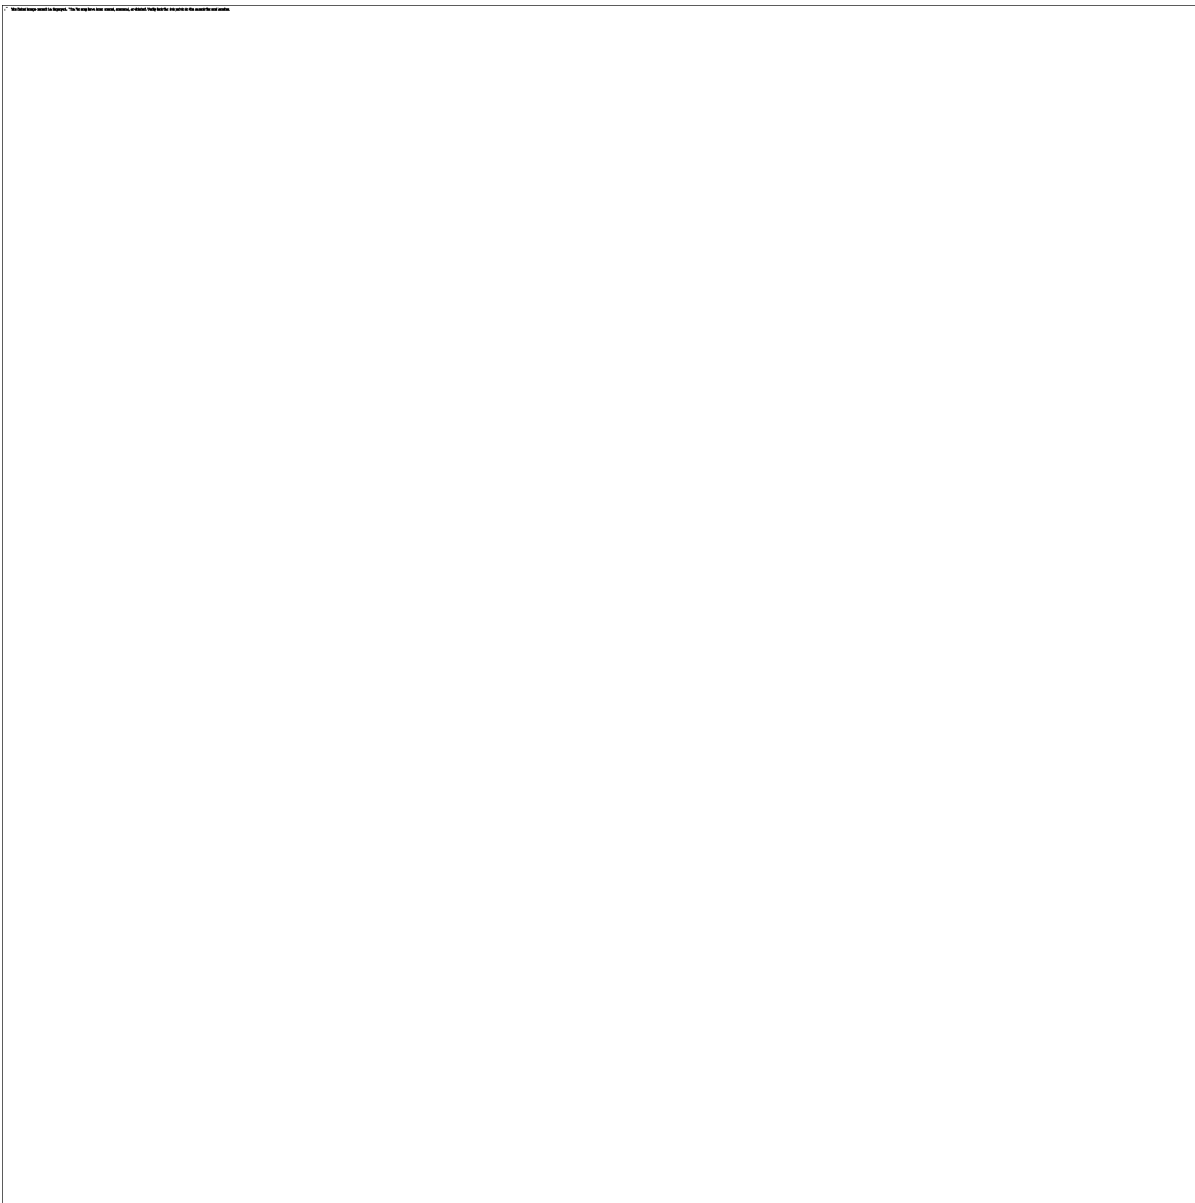

Individual funerals for those killed in the high-rise blaze began Wednesday but the communal funeral is to be held Sunday in the Islamic Cultural Center in the borough.

Advertisement

The Board is responsible for the following: The following are the main responsibilities of the Board, which are to be carried out by the Board.

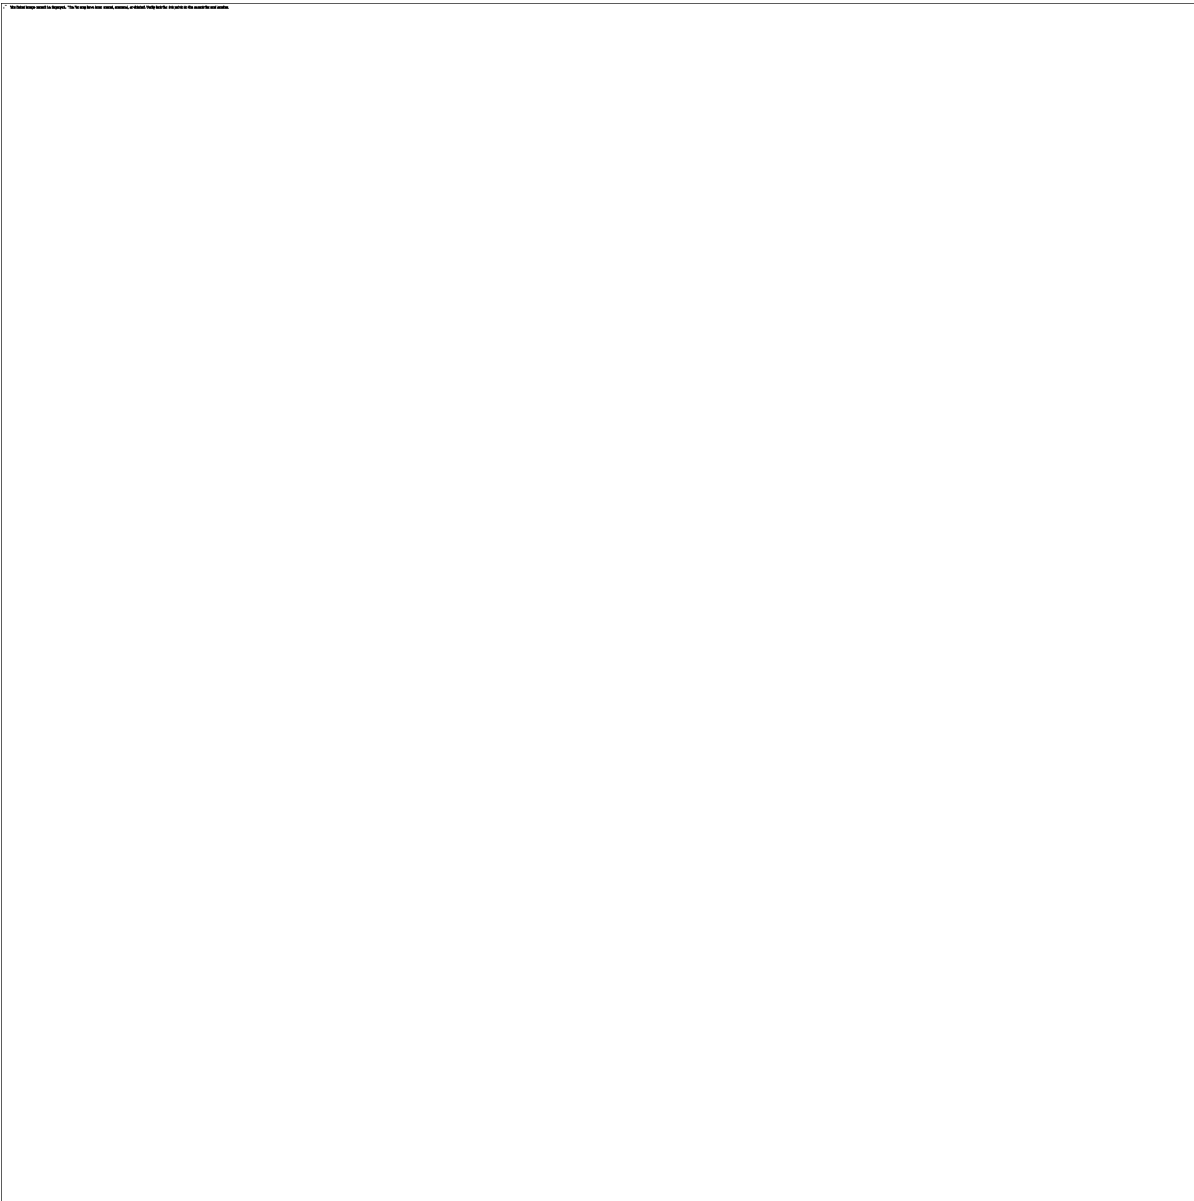

The Board is responsible for the following: The following are the main responsibilities of the Board, which are to be carried out by the Board.

The Board is responsible for the following: The following are the main responsibilities of the Board, which are to be carried out by the Board.

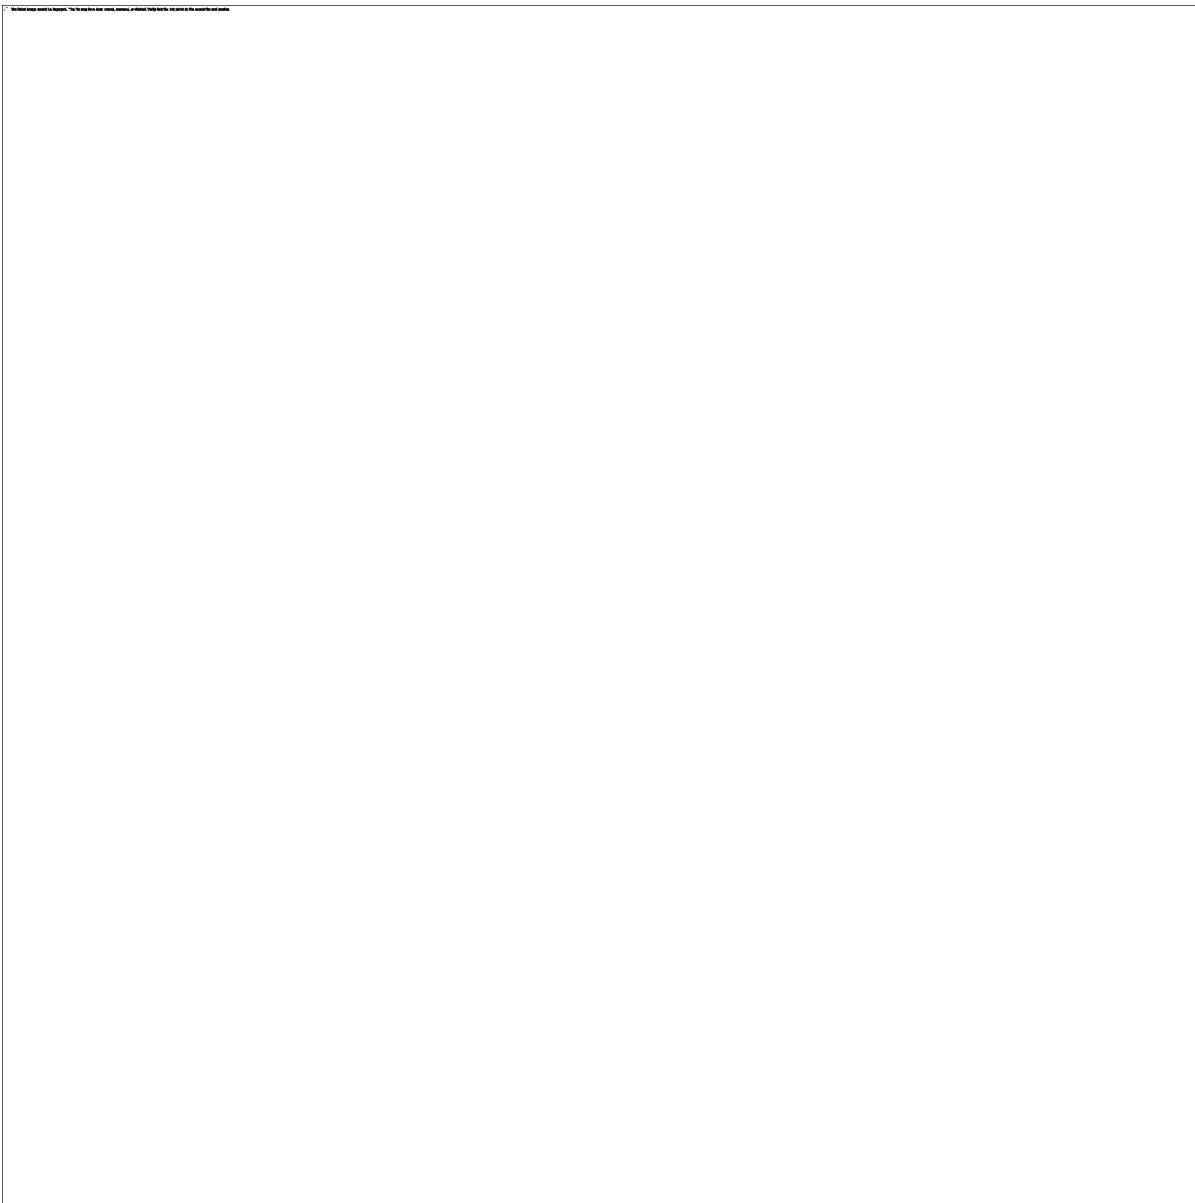

Editorial: Don't lose all of your bets

With the recent kickoff of legal mobile sports betting in New York, pleas to play are suddenly louder.

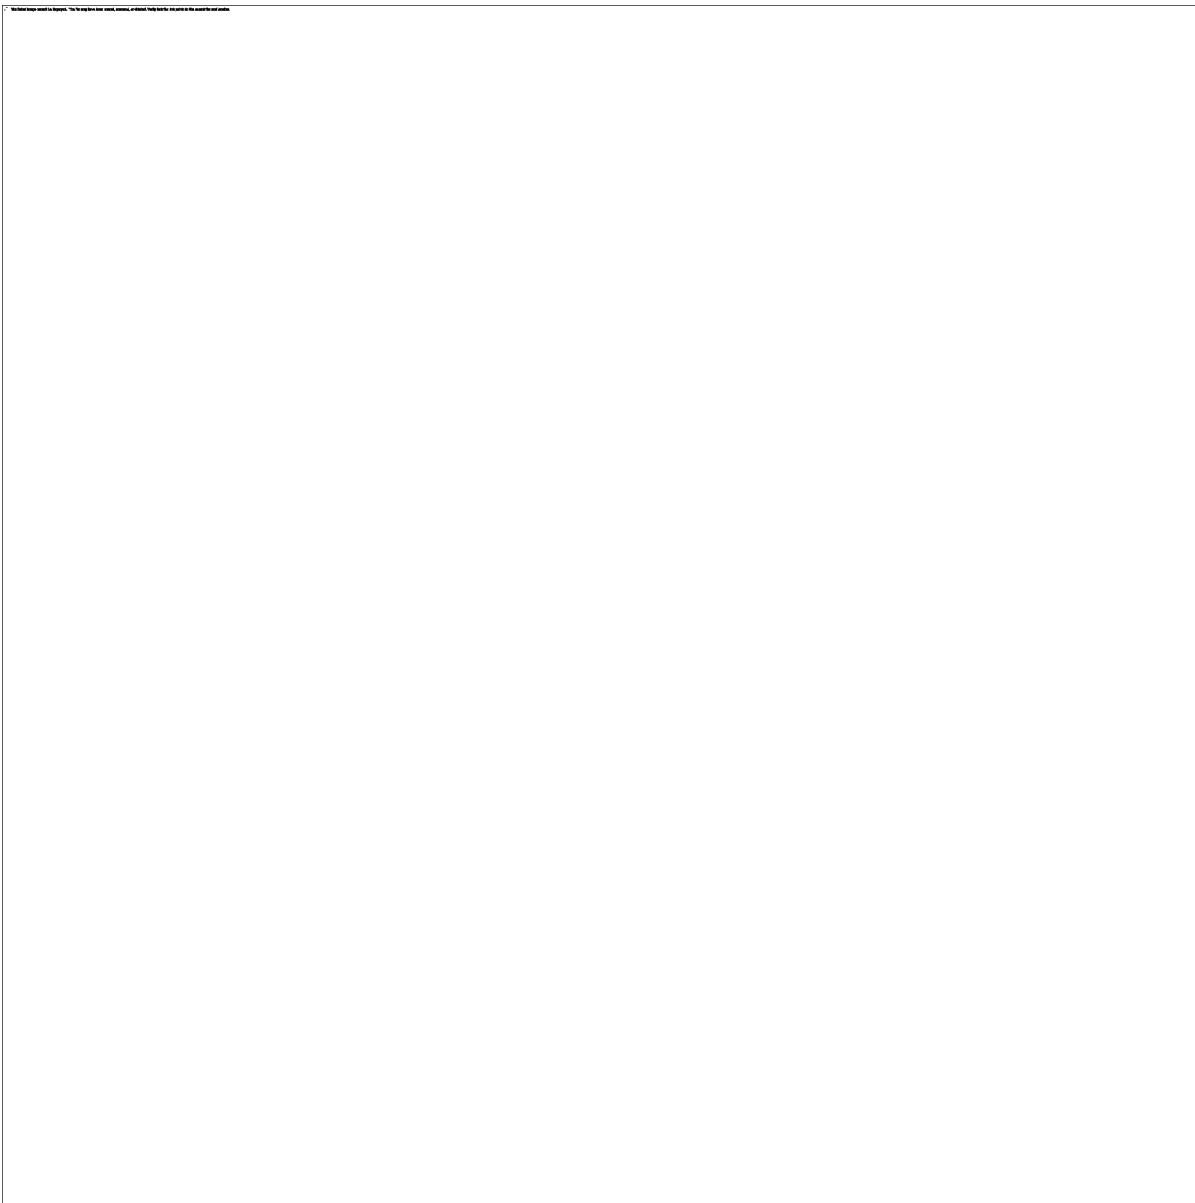

5 outdoor activities to try in NYS: Ice biking, snowmobiling and more

If you'd like to try some of the winter pursuits that bank on how cold New York State can get, these are options to explore.

Riverhead schools eye 5-year plan to improve graduation rates

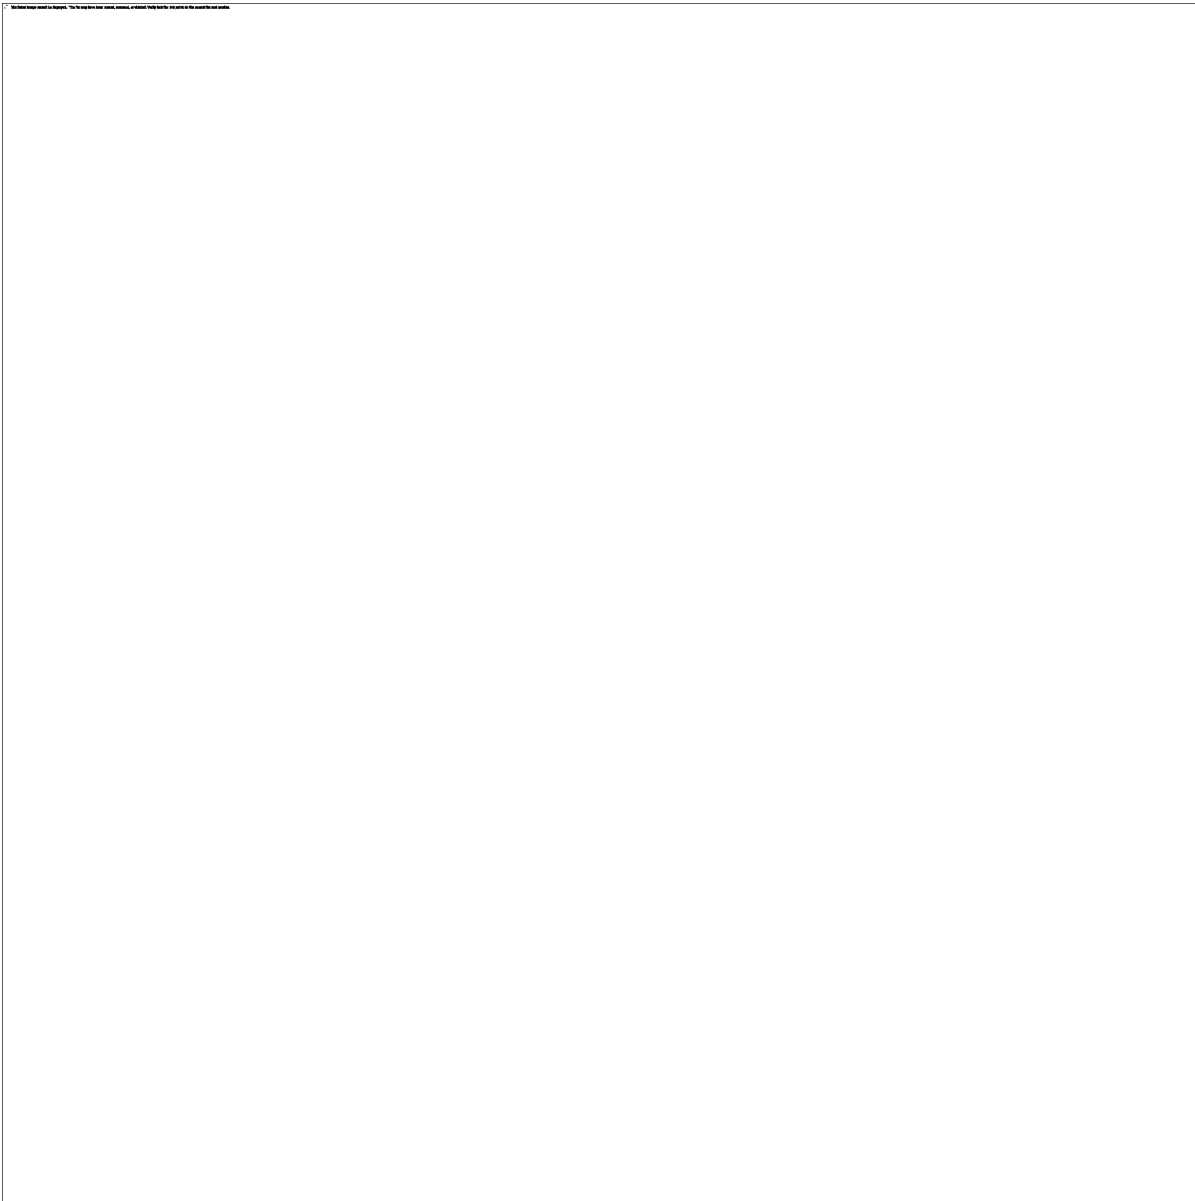

The district announced earlier this month that it would be setting up a steering committee to start working on the plan. The committee's core group held its first meeting Monday.

ONLY IN NEWSDAY

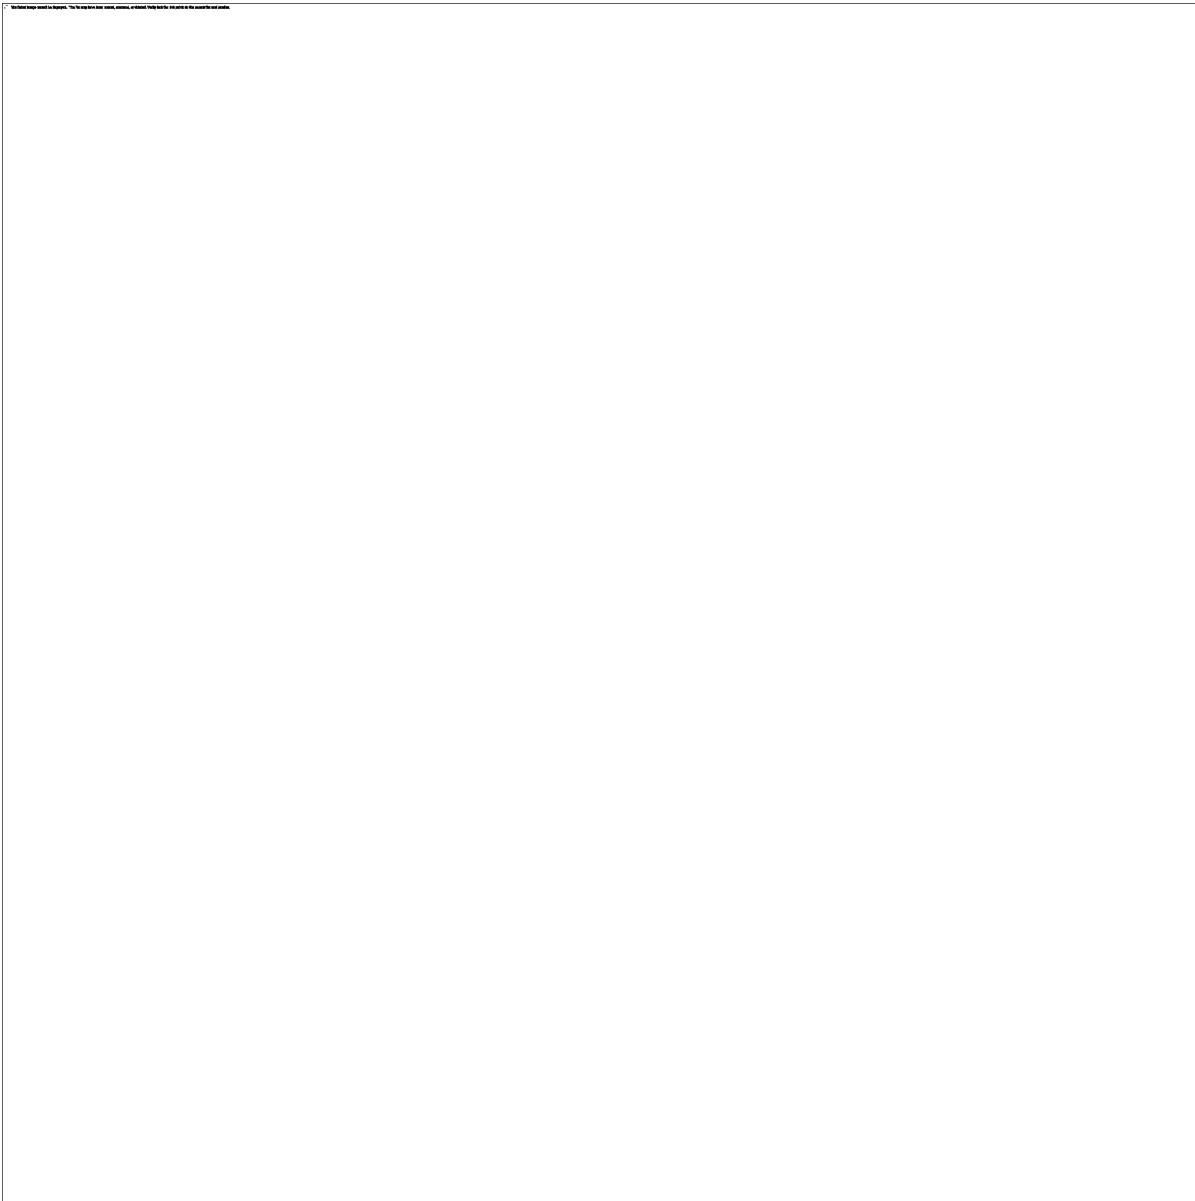

Melville firm gets cable contract for South Fork Wind Farm

Under the multimillion-dollar pact with Haugland Energy Group, about 100 unionized workers will construct the land-based cable and substation in East Hampton.

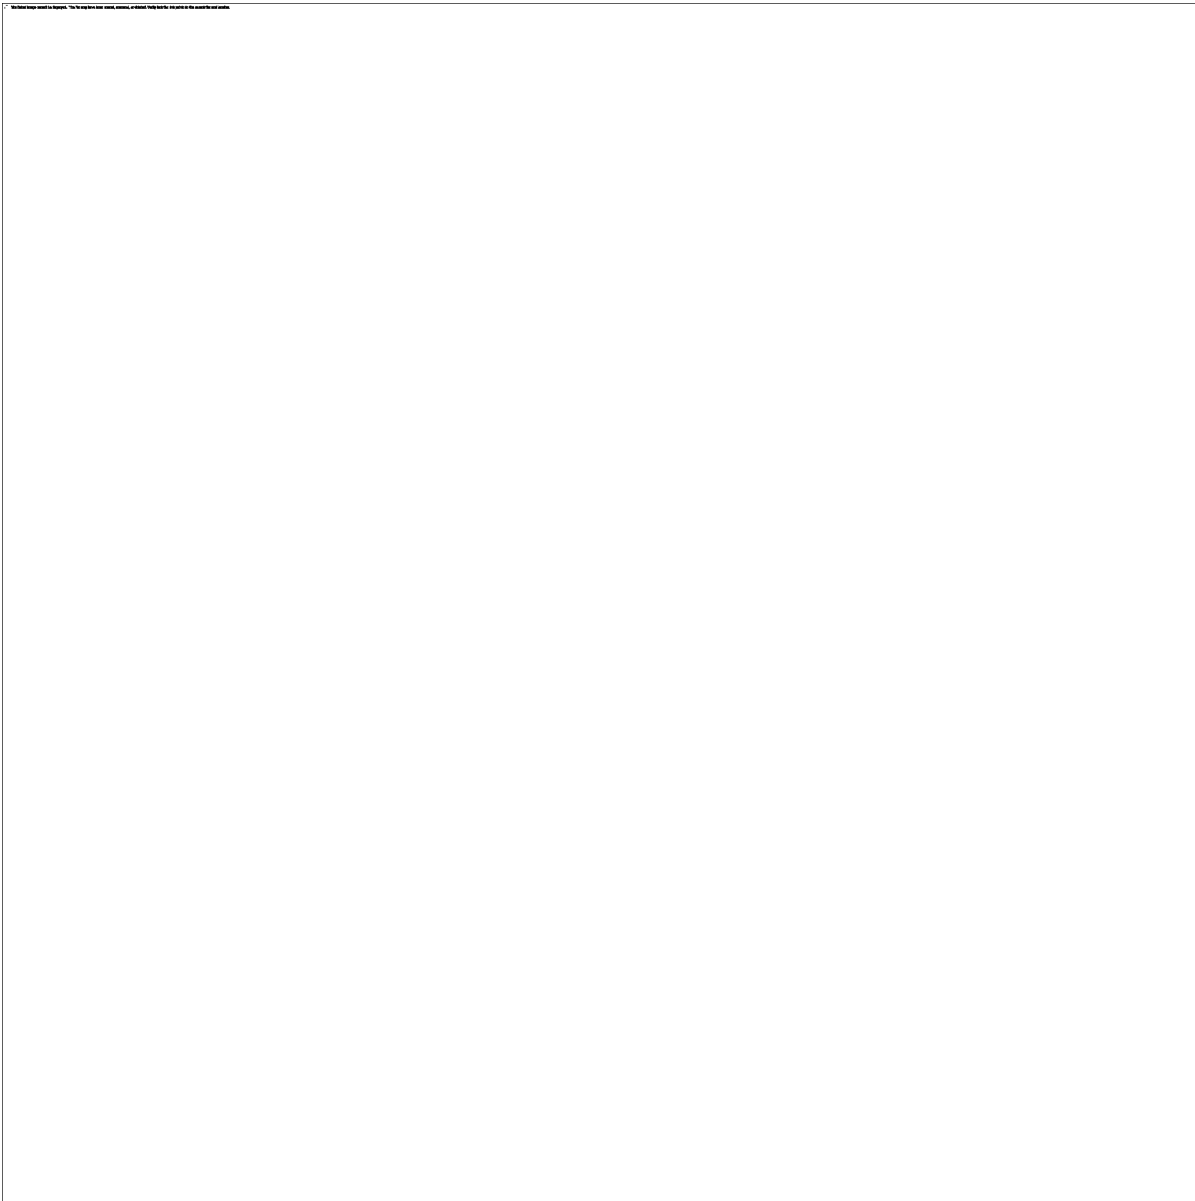

NFL mock draft 1.0: The first 18 picks

The Jets and Giants each have two top-10 picks; what will they do with them? Here's our first look at the first round.

General counsel appointed leadership role at NCC as presidential search continues

Haugen was appointed "officer-in-charge," which would make her the college's interim leader once President Jermaine Williams' resignation, announced last month, takes effect.

Two LI downtowns each win $10M for revitalization projects

The winning proposals include transit-oriented development near the LIRR and a town square featuring an amphitheater and ice rink.

Queens man pleads guilty in LIRR overtime scam

Track worker Frank Pizzonia, of Howard Beach, who was 53 at the time of an indictment in February, admitted to wire-fraud conspiracy, according to court records.

Advertisement

Sign up for more newsletters

You can cancel anytime

How are we doing?

We're always looking for ways to make newsletters better for you, and would love your feedback on how Morning Update could be improved. Email your thoughts, suggestions, or complaints to:

anthony.bottan@newsday.com

View this email in your browser

Copyright © 2022 Newsday. All rights reserved.

Newsday, 6 Corporate Center Drive, Melville, NY 11747

To stop receiving these emails, Unsubscribe or manage your email preferences.

Read Paper

Privacy Policy

11111